

I have put my phone numbers on the do not call list and i am pleased that i recieve no interruptions throughout my day or night. I am a single mom that doesnt have time to constantly stop asking telemarketers to stop calling, i even put my cell number on the list because I don't want them to burn my minutes which cost me money.
Please leave NJ do not call list as it is, it works wonders.